

I support diversification of media ownership. Cross ownership of Television and other forms of media, such as newspaper and radio, by the same organizations, or organizations controlled by the same people, is a danger to our democracy, limits public information, slants news and allows manipulation of facts by a few wealthy individuals with their own agenda. Joseph Di Monda